MANSION HOUSE,

Corner of Main and St. Clair Streets. Frankfort, Ky.

A. J. WEST, late of Cynthiana, and MiRS. E. P. GRIMES, of the Orympian Sprin s. respectfully and muce to their friends and the public generally, that they have taken this large and commode use establishment, and are prepared to entertain their guests in the elect manner. The house is clightly situated, being about equalistant from the Steamboot Landing and the Capitol grounds: is now in ergoing a thorough refitting and repairing, in such a style as will make it rank among the very best Hotels in the Wenn County.

The proprietors will endeavor, in all things, to promote the comfort and convenience of those who may honor them with a visit; and hope that their long expenses in the business will enable them to merit a heral share of public favor.

The horse is well adapted for a Hotel; the rooms are large and comfort delet the family rooms in the privice apartment are unsurpossed, in meatness and comfort by any house in the State. Gueste and their bargale are taken in and from the Rairoad depot and Steam ont Louing in recorders, fee of charge. All the Stages necessarily pass by, or start from this house, daily.

WEISIGER HOUSE.

FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY.

THOMAS S. THEOBALD beselvy informs the numerous patrons of the old office betraied House, his friends and the public generally, that having purchased the extensive Hotel buildings, furnitine, crouns a and stables, and become sole proprietor, the establishment will be kept up in a state of the utmost efficiency. No effort will be tended to make the Weisiger House one of the best Holes in the Uman, special attention and supervision being directed to every department connected with the occommistation, omfort and empty ment of patrons. The Table, the Charbers, the Beds, the Ber, the Parlors, the Pleasure Groun s, will all be a modally provised and arranged with the view to the utmost sets of ction of travellers, sojourners and permanent boarders, both in winter and summer. Strict attention will at all times te given to Stage. Steamboat and Railroad has sen ers, in fourtesting their arrival and departure, having abundant advantages in this respect.

The eligibility of the Weisiger House as a summer abode for Southern families, is surfuced for their consideration. The beautiful and picturesque scenery around Frankfort, uniting as this place does, every leal enjoyment of a large city with the pressant seclusion of a rural retreat, commend it strongly to Southern patronage.

In short, the long established high character of the House, will be, to say the least, faily sustained.

HOUSE OF ENTERTAINMENT,

THE subscriber stile outmost to keep the above named House, for the accommodation of travellers, on reasonable terms. Thankful for past lavers, he hopes by strict attention to his business to have a continuance of the same. He has likewise, a well selected assortment of FAMILY GRO-CELLES, which he untend to be much, which he will sall law.

HOUSE AND LOTS FOR SALE. HOUSE AND LOTS FOR SALE.

DESIRING to take a residence more retired, I will sell, if early application be made, my bouse and lots in Frankfort, on Ann and Mero streets. The buildings are in excellent order and embrace superior conveniences for a town residence. The garden is perhaps one of the best stocked, for its size, in the Western country, abounding in every production, adapted to the climate, necessary to the comfort and luxury of a family. The collection of fruit and ornamental trees, grapes, shrubbery, flowers, &c. &c. is exceedingly choice in every department, among which, are nearly 100 varieties of superb roses.

Besides the lot of 100 feet front on Ann. attached to the house, there are three elegant building lots, two of 50 and one of 40 feet front on Ann. 200 feet deep to an alley, the latter fronting 200 feet on Mero. I will sell in parcels, or the whole together. Terms, liberal, made known on application. Tho. B. STEVENSON.

NAUTILUS (Minnel Life) Insurance Company, No. 5%, Wall Street.—After mature deliberation, the Trustershave become convinced, and the experience of old established companies fully warrant the conclusion, that the advantages of Life Insurance on the Mutnal plan, may be extended and diffused with greater convenience to a large class of contributors, and with equal security to all the assured, by requiring no greater amount of the premium to be paid in cash than the company will require to meet its engagements with promptitude and fidelity.

will require to meet its engagements with promptitude and fidelity.

It has accordingly been determined that in all cases where the annual premium shall amount to $50, and 60 per cent thereof shall have been paid in cash, an approved note may be given for the retorating $0 per cent interest. The interest to be paid annually, but the principal not to be called in nuless the expencies of the rompany require it, giving sixty days notice, and then only by assessments pro rata to the extent that may be required to meet the engagements of the con pany.

It is confidently anticipated that a system, the operation of which is so fair and equitable, so well calculated to place the benefits and blessings of Life Insurance within the reach of all, and at the same time enable each contributor to share equally and fully not only in its beneficent security but also in its profits of accumulation, will meet, as it is believed to deserve, the favor and confidence of the public.

The particular advantages offered by this company, arc:

1. A guarantee capital.

2. An anaual participation in the profits.

3. No institutual responsibility beyond the amount of premium.

4. Those who insure for a less period than life, participate equally in the annual profits of the company.

The Nautius company confines its business exclusively to Insurance on Lives, and all Insurance appertaining to Life.

Mr. MeHENRY did not introduce the bill, but he was satisfied it ought to pass. The court as now organized could not give that consideration to important causes which they demanded. It was true that the appoinment of an additional judge would incur an additional expense for his salary. The court was now required to sit forty-eight days-it usually continued a week longer, In that time they were unable to go through with all the causes, and always held many important ones under advisement. Having some three hundred records to examine in the course of the term, it cannot be supposed that each judge will read every record. He supposed that the labor was distributed among them, that each judge examined enough of the record to assure himself of the truth of the report, and of the law in the case. Some object to an increuse of the number of judges, that it will divide responsibility. He believed it would add strength to the bench, and to its de-

Mr. HANSON remarked, that the committee the House which reported the bill under consideration, were not unaramous in their report. The vote stood—ayes 8, mays one in another a centrary decision. The Court of Appeals might be equally divided, and thus the rephonant decisions of the lower courts would stand. There were other reasons why he was opposed to the hill. It had been said that the court cannot accomplish its lusiness in the time allowed to sit by There was a bill now before the House, introduced by himself, giving an additional week to the court. He hoped the House would kill this bill where it was.

The bill was further advocated by Messrs. REED and ARMSTRONG, and opposed by Messrs. TOWLES and ALNUT.

On motion of Mr. CROCKETT, the House reer the bill for the modification of the act of 1833. permitting slaves to he brought into the Com ealth when for the use of the owners.; Mr. WAL-LER in the chair. Mr. CROCKETT said that this was a subject of deep and abiding interest to the people in his part of the State. Propositions had been made for several years, to modify the act of 1833. It had been so much discussed, that it had become a trite subject. But the very amount of discussion which it had received, was a powerful argument against the law. It proved that the people were dissatisfied with it. According to his views of the act, it was clearly unconstitutional. It was true, that the highest appellate court had passed upon its constitutionality; but their decision had failed to satisfy him. Where does the Legislature derive its anthority to pass a law prohibiting the importation of slaves for the use of the purchasers! thorizes the passage of laws prohibiting the importation of slaves as merchandize, it evidently does not sanction any further prohibition. He had! thought that slaves were considered as property in this State. He wished, while he lived in a slave State, that it should continue a pure and unmixed slave State; but if it was to be a free State, let it be a pure and unmixed free State. He was not willing that slaves should be regarded as property willing that slaves should be regarded as property in some cases, and not as property in all cases. He knew that the law of 1833 was advocated by its friends on the ground that it prohibited the importation of vicious slaves, who would contaminate the slave population of the State. The modification of the law would have no such effect, for no person the law would have no such effect, for no person the law would be regarded as property in some cases, and not as property in all cases. He knew that the law of 1833 was advocated by its friends on the ground that it prohibited the importation. It is a property in all cases. A most interesting and valuable letter which I received last week from Judge GRAHAM, of Bowlinggreen, comprises a description of Warren county, which I give below:

WARREN COUNTY.

"Warren county was formed by the Legislature of the State in 1796. It embraces about five hundred and sixty square miles, and is bounded by Edmonson, Butler, Logan, Simpson, Allen and Barren counties. [Principal articles of export-tobacco, wheat, Indian corn and pork. Face of the country, gently undulating; soil fertile and productive, based mostly on red clay and limestone foundation. Big Barren river, which heads near the Cumberland. runs through the county. Its tributaries, in the county, are Bay's fork, Drake's and Jenning's creeks, and Gasper river."]

I have the time, of organization and the boundaries of each county-and I will thank each member of the House of Representatives to furnish me on Monday, such information from his county as is comprised in brackets in the above extract, with the name of the county written above it.

LEWIS COLLINS. Frankfort, Jan. 15, 1847.

To the Editor of the Commonweat'i:

A day or two since we were favored, through the post office, with a number of the Morning Courier. of the 8th September, 1846. Our attention was called to an article headed, Gov. Owsley and Ben. Hardin, Esq., in which we find the following para-

"Last winter Gov. Owsley determined during the session of the Legislature, to appoint another in Mr. Hardin's place, and had prepared his message to the Legislature on that subject. But the friends of Gov. Owsley, who were indisposed to see a ster taken, which would have been mortifying to Mr. Hardin and his relations, received assurances from those nearest to Mr. Hardin, and most in his confidence, that if the Governor would not take that step. Mr. Hardin would vacate his office as soon as he could do so, without appearing to be driven from it.

One of us is a nephew, the other a son-in-law of Mr. Hardin, and both of us members of the Senate at the session of the Legislature, to which allusion is made. From that fact we come to the conclusion, that one, or both of us, are alluded to in the expression-"those nearest to him, and most in his confidence, gave assurances to the friends of Gov. Owsley, that if he, the Governor, would not send in the message, or institute proceedings calculated to mortify the feelings of Mr. Hardin and his relations," he. Mr. Hardin, would resign. We unqualifiedly pronounce that statement a falsehood. Mr. Hardin's friends did not dread exposure, or investigation; and thought they too well understood the powers of the Executive, to fear the result of any proceeding he might institute. That they deeply regretted the unfortunate disturbance of the friendly relations, long existing, between two old friends, is not denied .-Mr. Hardin courted investigation, and was eager to enter the contest, with a view to his own vindication. We state, that we have each heard Mr. Hardin in Frankfort, and at other places, speak of the breach, and express his determination to afford every opportunity for investigation, and when he had done that, he would dissolve the relations existing between the Governor and himself. This line of conduct, which he had marked out for himself, was no secret, and upon being approached by gentlemen professing to regret the scism, without reference to their friendly relations with the Governor, we did repeat, what we had frequently heard Mr. Hardin say would be his course. But that either of us (each breach, and express his determination to afford every would be his course. But that either of us (each ployed.

But that either of us (each speaking for himself.) ever did, either directly or indirectly, give any assurances that Mr. Hardin would resign, with a view to arrest proceedings against him, or in any manner appease the wrath of the Governor, is utterly without foundation. Without any boasted valor, we believe there would have been some hazard in making to us such a proposition, and we think we would have received, as we would have deserved, the contempt of Mr. Hardin, to have placed him in so humiliating a condition.

We did not know a reconciliation had been effected until several hours after it was done. If we mistake not, Mr. Mitchell has sworn, during the pendency of the present investigation, that he, by the consent of the Governor had effected it.

gaged in endeavoring to effect its continuation to his city, and is at present on a visit to Frankfort, to ascertain the probability of success, in running the line through this place, which we should be glad to see consummated. The cust per mile, for one wire, is about $125, and for each additional wire, about $35. The cost of bringing the line through this place will be but trilling. Our citizens by stepping forward now, will be abie to secure its passage through the Capital of the State. Mr. Shaffner has made himself acquainted with the enterprize, and he assures us, that he feels satisfied the stock will be profitable to the holders. But whether the stock proves profitable or not, it seems to us the money would be well expended.

NEWS FROM MEXICO.

The Louisville Conrier of yesterday, announces the arrival of Capt. Twitchell of the 2nd Regiment, Kentucky Volunteers, and says, the Louisville Legion, and McKee's regiment, had both marched to Saltillo. Capt. Twitchell confirms the rumors we have heard in regard to ordering the troops to Mon- Direct Importers and Wholesale Dealers tercy and Saitillo, yet from all he was able to learn, he was inclined to believe the reports of the ad- No. 526, MAIN ST., NUAR THIRD, LOUISVILLE, KY, vance of San'a Anna with so large a force, HAVE caw on hand, and are constantly receiving, direct from greatly exaggerated, if not entirely untrue. greatly exaggerated, if not entirely untrue.

The day before Capt. Twitchell left Camargo, Capt. Heavy's company came in from a scont in the interior. They succeeded in capturing several Mexican officers, who were endeavoring to form a company at a rawche, some 40 or 50 miles from Camargo.

January 1, 1646 I was with a command of one hundred and fifty men, under Li. Col. Field, and succeeded so well, that we took 21 prisoners and shot one, who attempted to escape. The regiment starts to Saltillo tomorrow morning. Santa Anna, is about to attack that place-perhaps will do so before we get there; but we hope not, and will make the greatest possible speed to reach there in time.

I was lucky enough to take a prisoner while acting as scout, and 'tis thought he is a man of soure importance. He was armed when I took him with rifle, sword and pistols, but made not the least resistance. If he is any thing it may t'll in my favor! If distinction is to be gained at Saltillo, I will make GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING AND FANCY STORE, an effort to win it, and I yet hope to come home some- WHERE every thing pertaining to Gentlemen's wear can thing more than I was when I left! G. P. T.

KEMP GOODLOE's letter is of same date. He says: turned. To-morrow we leave for Monterey. Our orders are to hurry on with the "utmost possible" expedition. The Mexican army is advancing upon Saltillo, and all the troops are ordered to concentrate at Monterey as soon as possible. From every thing that I can learn and see, I do not doubt that we are upon the eve of a severe hattle. That event is looked forward to with extreme importance by this regiment. The result no one can tell, and many hearts that now beat warmly will be stilled. I may be one to fall, though I have no parlicular apprehensions .-This may be the last time you will ever hear from me, and I have seized upon this opportunity to renew my sincere wishes for the health, happiness and prosperity of your family.

The Kentucky Regiment of Infantry under Col. McKEE, on the 10th of December, was ordered to Piceston.

LATER FROM THE SEAT OF WAR.-We have seen a letter from our young friend WOODYARD, of Capt. at 40 weeks to the year. Address. January 5, 1847-w2t&d Shawhan's company, Col. Marshall's Regiment, dated, Camargo, December 22, 1846. Mr. W., says, Santa Anna is marching towards Monterey with a large force. Expresses have been arriving and departing from here (Camargo) bourly for the last departing from here (Camargo) hourly for the last 30 hours. General's Wool and Worth, it is said, have retreated from Saltillo to Monterey. About five thousand troops have left here for Monterey, going without tents or baggage.

FROM TAMPICO .- The New Orleans Picayune of the 6th, brings us some items of news from Tampico, up to the 30th.

A grand flag staff, ninety-five feet high, was raised on the morning of the 30th ult. in the principal plaza, directly in the centre of an extensive marble pedestal originally designed for the basis of a mon-ument to Santa Anna. This work of the blind followers of the modern tyrant, it is said, cost some $60,000; but instead of a monument as was intended, to one whose name is written on the page of history with blood, there now float in triumph the beantiful folds of America's ensign!

Occasional rumors reach the city of an intended attack upon it by Mexicans; but they are only viewed as menced voting on the amendments, proposed to the Mexican tales. A man may eat every Mexican that will attack Tampico while our troops are there for That of Mr. Thurman, allowing soldiers to obtain supper, and still follow Dr. Franklin's receipe for a
